To Whom It May Concern,

We are writing to wholeheartedly recommend our long-term friend, Nathalie Urquhart, for any role requiring exceptional French/English or English/French translation skills. We have had the privilege of knowing her and her husband since our time living in London, and we can confidently say she is a person of remarkable integrity, reliability, and professionalism.

Nathalie has provided invaluable assistance to us on several occasions, showcasing her incredible skill as a translator and her meticulous attention to detail. One instance was when she translated complex legal documents related to a change of will in France. Her translations were not only accurate but also handled with the utmost care and confidentiality.

Another critical time she stepped in, was during a case of mistaken identity involving the local gendarmerie in France. Nathalie skillfully translated official statements, the evidence proving Kevin's whereabouts at the time of the alleged offence and facilitated verbal discussions with lawyers and police officials. Her ability to convey both the nuances of language and the gravity of the situation was instrumental in resolving the matter swiftly and favourably.

These experiences have left us both eternally grateful for her professionalism and unwavering dedication. Nathalie is a dependable, detail-oriented individual who approaches every task with precision and thoughtfulness. Her fluency in both English and French, combined with her natural ability to navigate complex, high-pressure situations, makes her an outstanding candidate for any translation role.

We have no doubt that Nathalie will bring the same level of excellence, reliability and care to your organisation as she has shown in her work for us. Please feel free to contact us directly if you require any further information or clarification.

Sincerely,
